In the past few years guests attending our Burns Celebration Dinner & Dance, whilst enjoying a great evening, have complained that, following the meal and speeches there was very little time to dance. Our St Andrew's Celebration is a bit different, still with a three-course meal, where the main course this year will be lamb (with a vegetarian option). The only speech will be a Tribute to Scotland given by Les Wilkinson, formerly a senior teacher at Nottingham High School. Les is a great lover of Scottish songs and may slip some in during the evening, we are delighted and honoured to have him as our guest speaker.

Now then dancers. There will be a lot more time for dancing and once again the caller will be, ' Mr Ceilidh' himself aka Schuggie MacInnes, we can promise you a full programme of dances old and new.

We do need your support to be able to continue with our St Andrew's Celebration, probably the best-value for money in the area at £28.50.

The dress code as normal, Kilts, Dinner Jackets or Lounge Suits.
